THE PAYNEHAM DITTY

A Song of Toc H Australia

When you roll up to Payneham and sit down to tea
And balance a cup and a plate on your knee
You think you are in an expensive hotel,
For we train 'em at Payneham to do the thing well.

Tra la la, who can tell
How we train 'em at Payncham to do the thing well?

We take off our coats when we get up to speak,
And the reason we do so is not far to seek:
It stops many an argument, rumpus and riot—
If your shirt's very dirty you've got to keep quiet.

Tra la la, stop the riot!
'Cos we train 'em at Payncham to keep very quiet.

And the washing-up party just out through the door
Won't leave any pieces of plates on the floor;
The sound of a crash is astoundingly rare,
'Cos we train 'em at Payneham to break things with care.

Tra la la, you may stare—
But we train 'em at Payncham to break things with care.

In the Jobmaster's innings you may feel afraid
That some might be unwilling to flourish a spade,
But the hard, dirty jobs don't leave these blokes appalled,
For we train 'em at Payneham to come when they're called.

Tra la la, hands are galled—
But we train 'em at Payncham to come when they're called.

This ditty was written for his own Branch, Payneham in South Australia, by Arthur James Stubbs, some time editor of "The Link" of Toc H, Australia.

The old tune is called "Wilkins and his Dinah".

who will deliver a Charge to the Movement.

THE CEREMONY OF LIGHT

The Patron's Lamp of Maintenance and a Women's Association Lamp of the Magnificat will be borne in procession through the Hall. During the singing of the Pilgrim's Hymn the Vice-Patron will light Lamps representative of newly recognised Branches. The lighting of all other Lamps will follow.

Words by J. Bunyan, and others.

Tune: Monks Gate.

He who would valiant be
'Gainst all disaster,
Let him in constancy
Follow the Master.
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent
To be a pilgrim.
Who so beset him round
With dismal stories,
Do but themselves confound—
His strength the more is.
No foes shall stay his might,
Though he with giants fight:
He will make good his right
To be a pilgrim.
Since, Lord, thou dost defend
Us with thy Spirit,
We know we at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then, fancies flee away!
I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labour night and day
To be a pilgrim.

Following which the audience are asked to be seated.

---

On completion of the Lamp lighting, all are asked to STAND and to sing:

Words by Barclay Baron

Tune: Strength and Stay

O joyful light, O glory of the Father,
Holy, beloved, Jesu Christ, our Lord!
Now without fear we see the darkness gather,
For that on us Thy evening light is poured.

Lo, having Thee, we lose not one another,
Sundered—united, dying but to birth;
All worlds are one in Thee, O more than brother,
One is our family in heaven and earth.

All remaining standing and the lights in the Hall being dimmed, TUBBY will lead the Ceremony of Light:

LIGHT!

All will then sing:

So shine in us, our little love reproving,
That souls of men may kindle at the flame;
All the world's hatred, broken by our loving,
Shall bow to Love, Thine everlasting Name.

Therefore to Thee be praises and thanksgiving,
Father and Son and Comforter Divine;
We lift our voice and sing, with all things living,
Giver of Life, the Glory that is thine.

HOME-GOING PRAYERS

Led by the Rev. Bob Knight, Administrative Padre.

Go forth with God!

The audience is asked to remain standing for the singing of 'Go forth with God', during which the Platform Party and Banners leave the Hall.

Go forth with God! the day is now
That thou must meet the test of youth.
Salvation's helm upon thy brow,
Go girded with the living truth.
In ways the Elder Brethren trod
Thy feet are set. Go forth with God.
Think fair of all, and all men love,
And with the builder bear thy part;
Let every day and duty prove
The humble witness of thy heart.
Go forth! 'tis God bids thee increase
The bounds of Love and Joy and Peace.
Behold with thine uplifted eyes
Beauty through all that sorrow seems;
And make of earth a Paradise,
The substance of thy dearest dreams.
Bring laughter to thy great employ
Go forth with God and find His joy.
Go forth with God! the world awaits
The coming of the pure and strong,
Strike for the Faith and storm the gates
That keep the Citadel of Wrong.
Glory shall shine about thy road,
Great heart, if thou go forth with God.

(Words by Barclay Baron: music by Martin Shaw)

Thus ends the Jubilee Festival Evening.
